What are we communicating today? In the context of the diminishing power of the word to communicate meaning and values, we find ourselves within a crisis of culture, without a common ground to understand one another and thereby come to terms with what we are living in Montréal. This event is an attempt to promote dialogue among students, faculty and the public. Its focus will be what shapes the city and its dwellers.

For more information call 848-3588.

SEXUALITY & SPIRITUALITY: A discussion and social action group for students concerned with justice and gender issues. All spiritual and sexual overtones are welcome. Thursdays 4–6 p.m. Annex Z, room 105. Call Daryl Lynn Ross 848-3585 or Brad and Glenn (273-5091).

MULTI-FAITH DIALOGUE: Students meet for a 'brown bag' lunch discussion that is designed to promote understanding and dialogue between members of various faiths Wednesdays, beginning January 18th at 12 noon, at Annex T (2030 Mackay) Those interested should call Matti Terho 848-3590

PRISON VISIT PROGRAM: A dialogue program between students and inmates at Archambault Prison. The visits will run for eight consecutive weeks on Tuesday afternoons, beginning January 24th. Those wishing to participate. Contact Matti Terho 848-3590 or Peter Côté 848-3586 for further details.

MEDITATION: A TOOL FOR SELF-KNOWLEDGE: Rediscover ancient methods of relaxing, quieting and concentrating the mind, attuning the mind-body-soul connection. While reading different traditions of meditation, each session will include a period of 'quiet sitting'. Call Daryl Lynn Ross, 848-3585, for more information. Wednesdays, 12 - 1 p.m., Annex Z, Room 105.

A JOURNEY OF DISCOVERY: Using guided imagery, meditation on the Word of God, creative expression and other techniques, participants will have the opportunity to discover the unity of mind, body and spirit, to form new bonds with others and deepen their relationship with God. Mondays 12-1:15, Annex Z, Room 105. For information call Michelina Bertone S.S.A. 848-3591

OUTREACH EXPERIENCE : is an opportunity to make a difference, to discover new skills and talents and to get involved. Participants will be invited to volunteer their time to work with children, teens, the elderly, the poor or the sick. The commitment required depends on your interests availability and desired depth of involvement. For information call Michelina Bertone S.S.A. 848-3591

THIRD WORLD EXPERIENCE IN CUERNAVACA, MEXICO: It is happening this summer (1995). If you are interested in learning more about the third world, particularly that which is right on our doorstep, contact Michelina Bertone SSA. 848-3591
